If you are looking for that perfect hunting tract, then you better look at this jewel. This 88 acre tract is surrounded by Bankhead National Forest and provides all of the luxuries of owning a large acreage with a fraction of the investment. With deeded access across US Forest Service land and a locked gate, you can have that security of enjoying your dream property without encroachment. With established food plots and 2 shooting houses up off the ground, this tract is ready to go with nothing more to do than show up. Proven by the pictures to hold big deer, and with the history of big bucks from Bankhead, this tract has it all.
