Here is 160 acres of unthinned pine plantation that was hand planted by the owners over 25 years ago. This tract offers the diversity that you want when hunting deer and turkey with the rolling terrain and hardwood funnels throughout. Access is great as the tract is divided by a county road running north to south. Hurricane Creek serves as the boundary on the Northwest portion of the tract. Mature oaks and cypress trees tower in the bottom along the creek offering great recreation and hunting opportunities. A small pond with a road leading to it gives you fishing opportunities. This tract offers a quick return for a potential buyer by thinning the pines and allowing the timber to mature into more valuable products.
